

Upcoming Events & Programs

1. Lakedell Farmers' Market – Every Friday at 4:30 pm
2. Homesite Consultations – Free confidential on-site review of cottage properties to advise owners how to reduce impacts on the lake water quality and habitat. Call Jim Stevens at 780.586.0710 to register
3. Environmental Workshops – Fun and interactive “Healthy Shorelines 101” for all ages, 10 am to Noon on Saturday
 - July 11 & 18 at the Lakedell Small Hall
 - July 25 at the Ma-Me-O Hall
 - August 8 at the Sandhom Hall, and
 - August 15 at the Mulhurst Bay Craft Room

PLWA website below provides details and locations. Contact Jim Stevens at 780.586.0710 to register. Copy of Living on the Edge provided to new and current PLWA members, one/family

4. Love The Lake Pledge – Contact Don Davidson at 780.586-2710 or at lovethelake@telus.net
5. Riparian Health Assessments, Environmental Farm Plan Workshops, On-Farm Water Quality Testing, Agricultural Growing Forward Initiatives, Stewardship Programs and Water Management – Agricultural residents can participate in these programs sponsored by the Counties of Leduc and Wetaskiwin, contact Robbin Nikiforuk at 780.387.6182
6. Horticulture - The Counties of Leduc and Wetaskiwin share a horticulturist position that deals with shelterbelt planning, tree orders, tree and plant disease, insects and pruning – for inquiries contact Heather Dickau at 780.955.3555 ext. 3287 or in Wetaskiwin at 780.352.3321 ext. 270
7. Annual General Meeting – Come to Lakedell Hall at 10 am August 22 to give us your feedback about the initiatives for this year and provide your input on future activities. Starting at 9 am organizations interested in helping people to help the environment will have displays up, ready to answer your questions. All Members are invited to stay for a BBQ lunch (RSVP to help Trudy estimate attendees 780.467.5127).

See our website for details

www.pigeonlakewatershedassociation.com

Contact the PLWA at: info@pigeonlakewatershedassociation.com

For more information call 780.586.0710